Great Clearing Sale

IN OUR

Clothing Departm'nt

We have offered some extraordinary values in clothing during the past few weeks, but these, our latest clearing publications, are of such a character as to interest the closest buyers. We have decided that the balance of our spring and summer stock must move, and an examination of stock and prices will show that we are in earnest. Facts speak for themselves.

FROM MORNING TILL EVEN.

Laurel, the more with me, laughing face,

Such a smiling face as all the earth can see,

Half sober, the best of them, half mirthful,

With lightest touch she wears a diamond crown.

Then comes my chaste and true,

Those days upon which a star is born,

But all the others, just the golden thorns,

From come the stars that bring me day.

Plan a woodland path of the earth,

Its bright eye looking at its golden rays,

With earth born there, every flower,

The shadow's left from the sunsheltered glen,

The textured, scented, together, howled, torn,

And running still in rippled, transparent,

Laurel waves over the rocks that round us,

As we fly.

On up the ascent climbs the great day after,

Then over the keystone of the cushioned stairs,

Stairs down to hear the voices singing,

Red glow'd like fire with heat in golden rays,

Weeks at length upon the number clouds

Are gone.

And from a corner now across his face,

Then the other side seen in rounded nests,

Autumnal blossoms, a cloud of fragrance.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Some of the Society Doing the Past Week.

One of the events of the week was the ball at Armory had given by the Waco Light Infantry, complimentary to Miss Florine Ross, a village girl of which was given in the Examiner at the time.

On Wednesday evening the cosy home of Mr. W. H. Harris was made bright and gay, the occasion being a compliment by German given by Mrs. Anna Harris to Miss Florine. KIDNEYS.

Are the great secretory organs of the body. Into and through the Kidneys flow the waste fluids containing poisonous matter taken from the system.

If the Kidneys do not fit properly this matter is retained and poisons the blood, causing headache, pain in the back and joints, flushed heat, chills, with disordered stomach and bowels.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA acts as a diuretic on the kidneys and bowels, and directly on the skin of the feet, causing the sweat, or glands of the body to resume their natural functions, and health is once restored.

Dr. JOHN BELL—This is my opinion that your proposition of exceedingly low prices is to be avoided, as it will not only injure your business, but will also injure the public.
